

POLICEMAN HELD IN TAXICAB THEFT

Prisoner Says Behan Told Him to Steal Machine, Operate It and Split Profits.

As a result of statements made by John Falter, No. 194 East 174th Street, accused of the theft of a taxicab, Patrolman Cuthbert Behan, attached to the East 254 Street Station, was held by Magistrate Schwan in the Yorkville Court today in $2,000 bail on a charge of complicity in the theft. Policeman Behan was in court when Falter was arraigned. Falter said that Behan had told him to steal a taxicab belonging to Harry Vidax of Kew-Forest, N. Y., which was standing on Indian's head at 11th Street and Irving Place, save it, repossess it and substitute a New York license and operate it on a 19-20 basis with the policeman.

Behan said he did not want to make any statement until after he had talked with his superior officers.

SUBWAY SMOKERS FINED.

B. R. T. Resumes Crusade to Check Influenza Spread.

Special officers of the B. R. T. are resuming their crusade against smoking in the subway. The crusade was suspended a week ago when Magistrate Gelman criticized the officers for arresting men at night for trivial offenses and compelling them to spend the night in jail.

Five men were arrested at the 43rd and 59th Street stations of the Fourth Avenue Subway today. He said the crusade was on again because Health Commissioner Copeland had declared smokers a menace in the influenza epidemic. Four of the offenders were fined $1 each.

LOOKS GOOD FOR HEIMEILE.

Gets $200 in Mother's Will if He Doesn't Drink.

When Mrs. Julia Heimeile of No. 1022 8th Avenue, Richmond Hill, made her will disposing of money and personal property valued at $1,500 in March, 1916, she stipulated that her son John would receive $100, and another $100 if he would refrain from alcoholic beverages and conduct himself in a "proper manner."

Mrs. Heimeile died Nov. 15. The will was filed in the Queens County Surrogate's court today when it would be a mighty hard job for any one who didn't have a little cellar of his own to prevent himself from refraining from the beverages above mentioned.

ROMANCE A STRIKE-OUT.

Met on Way to Ball Game; Marriage Now Annulled.

Concurrence of the fact of a previous marriage, although the first wife was dead, was the ground on which an annulment of the marriage of James Moran of No. 219 Lafayette Avenue, Brooklyn, to Mrs. Rose Moran of No. 182 Stodders-horn Street, Brooklyn, in the Brooklyn Supreme Court today, granted by Justice Benedict.

The couple met on June 24 last, while on their way to a ball game at Coney Island. The woman asked the man to marry her and they went to the game together. Six days later they were married. Moran has two children, now living in Ireland, by his first marriage.
